

Danubius Hotel and Spa Public Limited Company

Kastélykert Kulturális és Sport Kft. was sold

Danubius Hotels Nyrt. informs its shareholders and participants of the capital market that it has sold Kastélykert Kulturális és Sport Kft. The contract was signed on 20th July 2007 and the deal has been completed financially. The deal will have an effect on the third quarter business results of Danubius.

Kastélykert Kft. is the owner of the Szapáry-Castle in Bük not operated by the Danubius Group. The Kft. was 100% subsidiary of Danubius Hotels Nyrt. with HUF 43 million equity, however, owing to its insignificant size it has not been consolidated.
