- 8.2. The Board of Directors of the Company shall keep a share register, by share categories of the holders, of registered shares and general proxies, indicating the name (corporate name), address (seat), shareholding ratio of such shareholders or shareholders' proxies and indicating the series, number, and par value of the

- 8.3. Shareholders' proxies may exercise the shareholders' rights only in respect of the shares registered on the security account kept with such shareholders' proxy, or in respect of the registered shares deposited at such proxy. The depository appointed by the Company issuing certificates of deposit on the Company's shares under foreign law abroad (See Article 10.1.1.) shall be registered in the share register as shareholders' proxy (nominee), if such depository requests so and if it provides for a power of attorney in compliance with the law applicable for the issuance of certificates of deposit and the deposit agreement. Any other registration into the share register shall only be made if the shareholder's proxy has deposited one copy of the letter of proxy, prepared as a public document or as a private document with full probative power, at the Company. Such letter of proxy shall unambiguously state the fact that the shareholder, issuing the letter of proxy is not subject to any limitation specified under Articles 10.1.1 and 10.1.2 of these Articles of Association, in the absence of that the registration into the share register may be refused.

In the event the conditions described in the previous sentence are met, the shareholder shall simultaneously report the composition of the shareholders' group in accordance with the provisions specified in Articles 10.1.1 and 10.1.2. In case the shareholder fails to comply with or performs incorrectly the obligation on reporting the composition of the shareholder group defined in the previous sentence, or in case there is a reasonable ground to assume that a shareholder made false representation regarding the composition of the shareholders' group, its voting right shall be suspended (and any time further on as well) and the shareholder shall be prevented from exercising it until full compliance with said requirements. Further, the shareholder shall, for the request of the Board of Directors, immediately identify the ultimate beneficial owner with respect to the shares owned by such shareholder. If the shareholder fails to notify or accurately notify the Company pursuant to the provisions here above, he will be obliged to reimburse all damages and costs incurred as a consequence of exercising voting rights in excess of the 10% limitation by the shareholder or the shareholders' group to which the shareholder belongs.

- 10.3. In the event any shareholders' group, as defined above, holds more than 10% of the voting rights, the total voting rights of the shareholders' group shall be reduced to 10% by disregarding the voting rights of the shares (or the relevant portion of those) most recently acquired by the shareholder group.

The share capital may be increased by:

- the issuance of new shares;
- the transfer of funds from the equity capital in excess of share capital;
- issuance of employee shares;
- conditional increase of share capital, through the issuance of convertible or equity bonds.

The general meeting's resolution on the increase of share capital shall be considered valid if the holders of each affected types or classes of shares separately grant their explicit consent to the increase of the share capital in the manner specified in the Article 12.10 of the Articles of Association. In respect of the explicit consent those shareholders shall be considered affected who hold the same types or series of shares to be issued, furthermore the shareholders whose rights attached to any series of shares (in particular, but not limited to the voting rights, eligibility for dividends) change disadvantageously by the increase of share capital.

Unless the resolution of the general meeting prescribes otherwise, preference right shall be granted – in this sequence – first to shareholders of the Company (within that first to the holders of shares belonging to the same series of issue) and then to the holders of convertible bonds and in the same order of rank to the holders of bonds with subscription right. Unless otherwise provided for in the decision of the general meeting, if shareholders or bond-owners with the same preference right intend to subscribe or take over more shares than shares to be issued within the course of the capital increase, they can exercise their preference right in the proportion of the par value of their shares or bonds.

The general meeting may exclude the preference right pertaining to subscribe or take over shares based on the written proposal of Board of Directors. The general meeting shall discuss the proposal on exclusion of the preference right together with the proposal pertaining to the capital increase but it shall render separate decisions on them. In addition to the content required by law the proposal on exclusion of the preference right shall also contain the reason of the capital increase, in case of private placement the introductions of persons entitled to take over the shares, and the modification of the voting ratio of the existing shareholders as a result of the capital increase.
